How to impress at the job interview – and what to avoid at all costs

DON´Ts

Arrive late

Wear dirty, creased, or inappropriate clothes

Have an urgent appointment to get to afterwards

Wear too much perfume or makeup

Appear hungover

Interrupt your interviewers

Fold your arms or stick your hands in your pockets

Badmouth your previous employer or former colleagues

Come across as badly prepared

DOs

Research the company and the industry sector in advance – take notes with you

Bring several copies of your application documents

Bring questions on the company and its business

Have a pen and paper handy and take notes

Listen carefully

Be polite and attentive

Turn off your cell phone

Remember your interviewers' names and use them during the interview

A smile can work miracles
